About the Founder

Dr. Hakeem Shaik Akbar Kausar, a world renowned Unani Physician, and Acupuncturist, is popularly known as Daiveega Maruthuvar i.e. a Healer with divine touch, among the people in the southern states of India, and Bade Hakeem Sahab in the Hindi belt of India. He has made healing as his motto in his professional career and has earned a name for his integrity, credibility, and commitment to the cause of Medicine for more than four decades. Being a promoter of genuine Unani practice of medicine combined with the efficacy of acupuncture, and acupressure as complementary therapy, he has become an ambassador of holistic herbal practice of Medicine. He holds the view that both Unani and Herbal practice come under the purview of medical wisdom rather than a mere science. It is a comprehensive method of taking into account the physical as well as psychological conditions of the patient congratulations and applying an admixture of therapies, which ensure complete healing. A way of treatment transcends from the physical to metaphysical level. It includes regimental (Ilaj Bit Tadbeer), a unique Unani method that helps to improve the body constitution of an individual by eliminating waste and enhancing the defense mechanism of the body, Dieto therapy (Ilaj bil Ghiza), and Pharmacotherapy (Ilaj bil Dawa).

Dr. Hakeem Shaik Akbar Kausar is widely known for his popular television channel programmes telecasted in various languages and watched by multitude audience in India and abroad. The health programmes on the television address manifold health issues and their solutions through simple methods of regimen, diet and exercise. They have been meant to inculcate health education and awareness among the common people. He has authored, edited and published books and journals on Medicine in various languages with the intention to reach the message of health to the multitude. His patients range from rag to rich. They belong to various walks of life including rulers, ministers, politicians and individuals from every profession. The fast growing reputation and developmental growth is a standing testimony of his efficacy in the medical practice. As an ardent physician and researcher, his dedication to the field of Medicine and commitment to the healing process are to be reckoned with.

The establishments initiated by Dr. Hakeem Shaik Akbar Kausar have flourished like an Empire of Medicine with multi-faceted facilities of treatment and research. The KASINI HOSPITAL stands aloft as a centre of healing for many a disease, especially being panacea to kidney ailments. The MUGHAL GARDENS is a rich greenhouse of medicinal plants.

The SHAHI GARAM HAMMAM provides the age proven Turkish bath for physical relief and healing. Bade Hakeem Sahab has set apart his income in establishing a trust, namely the Al Kausar Tibb -e- Nabuvi Research Foundation Trust - ATRF, registered and established in 1996 in Vaniyambadi, Tamil Nadu, with a view to reach the health care and health awareness to the people at large.
